DECLARATION

By completing this form, I confirm that:

- I am a current Swinburne student enrolled at the Hawthorn campus; and
- I am unable to attend The Junction in person to vote during the on-campus polling days (Monday 7 – Thursday 10 September 2026); and
- I wish to participate in the 2026 SSA Annual Election by voting online.

Important: your online voting link will be issued to your Swinburne student email address. Once your registration is accepted, you will receive your voting link when online voting opens at 9:00am (AEST) Monday 7 September 2026. Online voting closes at 4:00pm (AEST) Thursday 10 September 2026.

Please note: registration for online voting is not reversible. Once accepted, you will be unable to vote in person at The Junction.

HOW TO SUBMIT

Send this completed form from your Swinburne student email to:

elections@ssa.edu.au

Applications must be received by no later than 9:00am (AEST) on Wednesday 26 August 2026.

Applications submitted after this deadline will not be accepted. This form must be submitted from your Swinburne student email address — applications from personal email accounts will be rejected.

INFORMATION ABOUT ONLINE VOTING REGISTRATION

Who is this form for? Hawthorn campus students who are enrolled in their course at Hawthorn and who cannot attend The Junction in person during the on-campus polling days.

What happens after I register? The Returning Officer will review your application. If accepted, your online voting link will be sent to your Swinburne student email when online voting opens on Monday 7 September 2026.

Is registration reversible? No. Once your registration is accepted and your voting link is issued, you will not be able to vote in person.

Do not share your voting link. Your voting link is personal to you. Do not give it to another person. If you see a breach of the Election Regulations, report it to the Returning Officer at elections@ssa.edu.au.

Questions? Contact the Returning Officer at elections@ssa.edu.au.
